John 10. 20. 21. 22.
10. 4. 10.
The Preface.

THe singing of Psalmes, though it breath forth nothing but holy harmony, and melody yet such is the subtilty of the enemie, and the enmity of our nature against the Lord, & his wayes, that our hearts can finde matter of discord in this harmony, and crotchets of division in this holy melody. -for- There have been three questions especially stirring concerning singing. First. what psalmes are to be sung in churches? whether Davids and other scripture psalmes, or the psalmes invented by the gifts of godly men in every age of the church. Secondly, if scripture psalmes, whether in their owne words, or in such meter as english poetry is wont to run in? Thirdly. by whom are they to be sung? whether by the whole churches together with their voices? or by one man singing alone and the rest joyning in silence, & in the close saying amen.

Touching the first, certainly the singing of Davids psalmes was an acceptable worship of God, not only in his owne, but in succeeding times. as in Solomons time 2 Chron. 5. 13. in Iehosaphats time 2 Chron. 20. 21. in Ezra his time Ezra 3. 10, 11. and the text is evident in Hezekiahs time they are commanded to sing praise in the words of David and Asaph, 2 Chron. 29, 30. which one place may serve to resolve two of the questions (the first and the last) at once. for this commandement was it ceri-cerimoniall or morall? some things in it indeed were cerimoniall, as their musically instruments &c but what ceremony was there in singing prayse with the words of David and Asaph? what if David was a type of Christ, was Asaph also? was every thing of David typical? are his words (which are of morall, universall, and perpetuall authority in all nations and ages) are they typicall? what type can be imagined in making use of his songs to prayse the Lord? If they were typical because the ceremony of musically instruments was joyned with them, then their prayers were also typical, because they had that ceremony of incense admixt with them: but wee know that prayer then was a morall duty, notwithstanding the incense; and soe singing those psalmes notwithstanding their musically instruments. Beside, that which was typical (as that they were sung with musically instruments, by the twenty-foure orders of Priests and Levites. 1 Chron 25. 9.) must have the morall and spirituall accomplishment in the new Testament, in all the Churches of the Saints principally, who are made kings & priests

Rev. 1. 6. and are the first fruits unto God. Rev. 14 4. as the Levites were Num. 3. 45. with hearts & lippes, in stead of musically instruments, to prayse the Lord; who are set forth (as some iudiciously think) Rev. 4. 4. by twenty foure Elders, in the ripe age of the Church, Gal. 4. 1, 2, 3. answering to the twenty foure orders of Priests and Levites
1 Chron. 25. 9. Therefore not some select

Preface.

members, but the whole Church is commaund-ed to teach one another in all the severall sorts of Davids psalmes, some being called by him selfe מזמורים: psalms, some תהילים Hymns some שירים: spirituall songs. soe that if the singing Davids psalmes be a morall duty & therfore perpetuall; then wee under the new Testamēt are bound to sing them as well as they under the old: and if wee are expressly commaunded to sing Psalmes, Hymnes, and spirituall songs, then either wee must sing Davids psalmes, or else may affirm they are not spirituall songs: which being penned by an extraordinary gift of the Spirit, for the sake especially of Gods spirituall Israell; not to be read and preached only (as other parts of holy writ) but to be sung also, they are therefore most spirituall, and still to be sung of all the Israell of God: and verily as their sin is exceeding great, who will allow Davids psalmes (as other scriptures) to be read in churches (which is one end) but not to be preached also, (which is another end soe their sin is crying before God, who will allow them to be read and preached, but seeke to deprive the Lord of the glory of the third end of them, which is to sing them in christian churches.
obj. 1 If it be sayd that the Saints in the primitive Church did compile spirituall songs of their owne inditing, and sing them before the Church.
1 Cor. 14, 15, 16.

Ans. We answer first, that those Saints compiled these spirituall songs by the extraordinary gifts of

The.

The spirit (common in those dayes) whereby they were inabled to praise the Lord in strange tongues, wherein learned Paræus proves those psalmes were uttered, in his Commēt on that place uers 14 which extraordinary gifts, if they were still in the Churches, wee should allow them the like liberty now. Secondly, suppose those psalmes were sung by an ordinary gift (which wee suppose cannot be evicted) doth it therefore follow that they did not, & that we ought not to sing Davids psalmes? must the ordinary gifts of a private man quench the spirit still speaking to us by the extraordinary gifts of his servant David? there is not the least foot-step of example, or precept, or colour, reason for such a bold practise.

obj. 2. Ministers are allowed to pray conceived prayers, and why not to sing conceived psalmes? must wee not sing in the spirit as well as pray in the spirit?

Ans. First because every good minister hath not a gift of spirituall poetry to compose extemporarie psalmes as he hath of prayer. Secondly. Suppose he had, yet seeing psalmes are to be sung by a joynt consent and harmony of all the Church in heart and voyce (as wee shall prove) this cannot be done except he that composeth a psalme, bringeth into the Church set formes of psalmes of his owne invētion; for which wee finde no warrant or president in any ordinary officers of the Church throughout the scriptures. Thirdly. Because the booke of psalmes is so compleat a System of psalmes.

Preface?

psalmes, which the Holy-Ghost himselfe in infinite wisdom hath made to suit all the conditions, necessities, temptations, affections, &c. of men in all ages; (as most of all our interpreters on the psalmes have fully and particularly cleared) therefore by this the Lord seemeth to stoppe all mens mouths and mindes ordinarily to compile or sing any other psalmes (under colour that the occasions and conditions of the Church are new) &c. for the publick use of the Church, seing, let our condition be what it will, the Lord himselfe hath supplied us with farre better; and therefore in Hezekiahs time, though doubtlesse there were among them those which had extraordinary gifts to compile new songs on those new occasions, as Isaiah and Micah &c. yet wee read that they are commanded to sing in the words of David and Asaph, which were ordinarily to be used in the publick worship of God: and wee doubt not but those that are wise will easily see; that those set formes of psalmes of Gods owne appoyntment not of mans conceived gift or humane imposition were sung in the Spirit by those holy Levites, as well as their prayers were in the spirit which themselves conceived, the Lord not then binding them therein to any set formes; and shall set formes of psalmes appoynted of God not be sung in the spirit now, which others did then?

Question. But why may not one compose a psalme & sing it alone with a loud voice & the rest joyne with

The.

with him in silence and in the end say Amen?

Ans. If such a practise was found in the Church of Corinth, when any had a psalme suggested by an extraordinary gift; yet in singing ordinary psalmes the whole Church is to ioyne together in heart and voyce to prayse the Lord. -for-
First. Davids psalmes as hath beene shewed, were sung in heart and voyce together by the twenty foure orders of the musicians of the Temple, who typed out the twenty foure Elders all the members especially of christian Churches Rev 5. 8. who are made Kings and Priests to God to prayse him as they did: for if there were any other order of singing Choristers beside the body of the people to succeed those, the Lord would doubtlesse have given direction in the gospel for their qualification, election, maintainance &c. as he did for the musicians of the Temple, and as his faithfullnes hath done for all other church officers in the new Testament.

Secondly. Others beside the Levites (the chiefe Singers) in the Jewish Church did also sing the Lords songs; else why are they commanded frequently to sing: as in ps. 100, 1, 2, 3. ps. 95, 1, 2, 3. ps. 102. title. with vers 18. & Ex. 15. 1. not only Moses but all Israell sang that song, they spake saying (as it is in the orig.) all as well as Moses, the women also as well as the men. v. 20 21. and dent. 32. ( whereto some thinke, Iohn had reference as well as to Ex. 15. 1. when he brings in the protestant Churches getting the victory over the Beast

Preface.

Beast with harps in their hands and singing the song of Moses. Rev. 15. 3.) this song Moses is commanded not only to put it into their hearts but into their mouths also: deut. 31. 15. which argues, they were with their mouths to sing it together as well as with their hearts.

Thirdly. Isaiah foretells in the dayes of the new-Testament that Gods watchmen and desolate lost soules, (signified by wast places) should with their voices sing together, Isa. 52. 8, 9. and Rev. 7. 9, 10. the song of the Lamb was by many together, and the Apostle expressly commands the singing of Psalmes, Himnes, &c. not to any select christians, but to the whole Church Eph. 5. 19 coll. 3. 16. Paule & Silas sang together in private Acts. 16. 25. and must the publick heare oly one man sing? to all these wee may adde the practise of the primitive Churches; the testimony of ancient and holy Basil is in stead of many Epist. 63 When one of us (saith he) hath begun a psalme, the rest of us set in to sing with him, all of us with one heart and one voyce; and this saith he is the common practise of the Churches in Egypt, Lybia, Thebes, Palestina, Syria and those that dwell on Euphrates, and generally every where, where singing of psalmes is of any account. To the same putpose also Eusebius gives witness, Eccles. Hist. lib. 2. cap. 17. The objections made against this doe most of them plead against joyn-ing to sing in heart as well as in voyce, as that by this meanes others out of the Church will sing

The.

as also that wee are not alway in a futable estate to the matter sung, & likewise that all cannot sing with understanding; shall not therefore all that have understanding ioyne in heart and voyce together? are not all the creatures in heaven, earth, seas: men, beasts, fishes, foules &c. commanded to praise the Lord, and yet none of these but men, and godly men too, can doe it with spirituall understanding?

As for the scruple that some take at the translation of the book of psalmes into meeter, because Davids psalmes were sung in his owne words without meeter: wee answer. First. There are many verses together in several psalmes of David which run in rithmes (as those that know the hebrew and as Buxtorf shews Thesau. pa. 629.) which shews at least the lawfullnes of singing psalmes in english rithmes.

Secondly. The psalmes are penned in such verses as are futable to the poetry of the hebrew language, and not in the common style of such other bookes of the old Testament as are not poetically; now no protestant doubteth but that all the bookes of the scripture should by Gods ordinance be extant in the mother tongue of each nation, that they may be understood of all, hence the psalmes are to be translated into our english tongue; and if in our english tongue wee are to sing them, then as all our english songs (according to the course of our english poetry) do run in metre, soe ought Davids psalmes to be translated into

into meeter, that soe wee may sing the Lords songs, as in our english tongue soe in such verses as are familar to an english eare which are commonly metricall: and as it can be no just offence to any good conscience to sing Davids hebrew songs in english words, soe neither to sing his poeticall verses in english poeticall metre: men might as well stumble at singing the hebrew psalmes in our english tunes (and not in the hebrew tunes) as at singing them in english meeter, (which are our verses) and not in such verses as are generally used by David according to the poetry of the hebrew language: but the truth is, as the Lord hath hid from us the hebrew tunes, lest wee should think our selves bound to imitate them; soe also the course and frame (for the most part) of their hebrew poetry, that wee might not think our selves bound to imitate that, but that every nation without scruple might follow as the graver sort of tunes of their owne country songs, soe the graver sort of verses of their owne country poetry.

Neither let any think, that for the meetre sake wee have taken liberty or poeticall licence to depart from the true and proper sence of Davids words in the hebrew verses, noe; but it hath beene one part of our religious care and faithfull indeavour, to keepe close to the originall text.

As for other obiections taken from the difficulty of Ainsworths tunes, and the corruptions in our common psalme books, wee hope they are answered in this new edition of psalmes which wee here present to God and his Churches. For although wee have cause to blesse God in many respects for the religious indeavours of the translators of the psalmes into meetre usually annexed to our Bibles, yet it is not unknowne to the godly learned that they have rather presented a paraphrase then the words of David translated according to the rule 2 chron. 29. 30. and that their addition to the words, detractions from the words are not seldome and rare, but very frequent and many times needles, (which we suppose would not be approved of if the psalmes were so translated into prose) and that their variations of the sense, and alterations of the sacred text too frequently, may iustly minister matter of offence to them that are able to compare the translation with the text; of which failings, some iudicious have oft complained, others have been grieved, wherupon it hath bin generally desired, that as wee doe inioye other, soe (if it were the Lords will) wee might inioye this ordinance also in its native purity: wee have therefore done our indeavour to make a plaine and familiar translation of the psalmes and words of David into english metre, and have not soe much as presumed to paraphrase to give the sense of his meaning in other words; we have therefore attended heerin as our chief guide the originall, shunning all additions, except such as even the best translators translators of them in prose supply, avoiding all materiall detractions from words or sence. The word and which wee translate and as it is redundant sometime in the Hebrew, soe sometime (though not very often) it hath been left out, and yet not then, if the sence were not faire without it.

The.

Preface.

As for our translations, wee have with our english Bibles (to which next to the Originall wee have had respect) used the Idioms of our owne tongue in stead of Hebraismes, lest they might seeme english barbarismes.

Synonimaes wee use indifferently: as folk for people, and Lord for Iehovah, and sometime (though seldome) God for Iehovah; for which (as for some other interpretations of places cited in the new Testament) we have the scriptures authority ps. 14. with 53. Heb. 1. 4. with psalme 97. 7. Where a phrase is doubtfull wee have followed that which (in our owne apprehension) is most genuine & edifying:

Sometime wee have contracted, sometime dilated the same hebrew word, both for the sence and the verse sake: which dilatation wee conceive to be no paraphrasticall addition no more then the contraction of a true and full translation to be any unfaithfull detraction or diminution: as when wee dilate who healeth and say he it is who healeth; soe when wee contract, those that stand in awe of God and say Gods feavers.

Lastly, Because some hebrew words have a more full and emphaticall signification then any one english word can or doth sometime expresse, hence wee have done that sometime which faithfull translators may doe, viz. not only to translate the word but the emphasis of it; as לN* mighty God, for God. בhumbly* blesse for blesse; rise to stand, psalm 1. for stand truth and faithfullnes for truth. Howbeit, for the verse sake wee doe not alway thus, yet wee render the word truly though not fully; as when wee sometime say reioyce for shout for ioye.

As for all other changes of numbers, tenses, and characters of speech, they are such as either the hebrew will unforcedly beare, or our english forceably calls for, or they no way change the sence; and such are printed usually in an other character.

If therefore the verses are not alwayes so smooth and elegant as some may desire or expect; let them consider that Gods Altar needs not our pollishings: Ex. 20. for wee have respected rather a plaine translation, then to smooth our verses with the sweetnes of any paraphrase, and soe have attended Conscience rather then Elegance, fidelity rather then poetry, in translating the hebrew words into english language, and Davids poetry into english meetre; that

PSALME I

- O Blessed man, that in th' advice of wicked doeth not walk:
nor stand in sinners way, nor sit in chayre of scornfull folk.
- 2 But in the law of Iehovah, is his longing delight:
and in his law doth meditate,
by day and eke by night.
- 3 And he shall be like to a tree planted by water-rivers:
that in his season yeilds his fruit,
and his leafe never withers.
- 4 And all he doth, shall prosper well,
the wicked are not so:
but they are like vnto the chaffe, which winde drives to and fro.
- 5 Therefore shall not ungodly men, rise to stand in the doome, nor shall the sinners with the just,
in their assemblie come.
- 6 For of the righteous men, the Lord acknowledgeth the way:
but the way of vngodly men, shall vtterly decay.

Psalme 3

1 A psalme of David when he fled from the face of Absalom his Sonne.

O Lord, how many are my foes?
how many up against me stand?

2 Many say to my soule noe helpe in God for him at any hand.

3 But thou Lord art my shield, my glory and the-uplifter of my head,

4 with voyce to God I cal'd, who from his holy hill me answered.

5 I layd me downe, I slept, I wakt, for Iehovah did me up beare:

6 People that set against me round, ten thousand of them I'le not feare.

7 Arise o Lord, save me my God, for all mine enimies thou hast stroke upon the cheek-bone: 8 the teeth of Ichovah most high.

Psalme 8

To the chiefe Musician upon Gittith,
a psalme of David.

O LORD our God in all the earth how's thy name wondrous great:
who hast thy glorious majesty above the heavens set.

2 out of the mouth of sucking babes:
thy strength thou didst ordeine, that thou mightst still the enemy, and them that thee disdain.

3 when I thy fingers work, thy Heav'ns, the moone and starres consider:

4 which thou hast set. What's wretched man; that thou dost him remember?
or what's the Son of man, that thus him visited thou hast?

5 For next to Angells, thou hast him a litle lower plac't and hast with glory crown'd him,
and comely majesty:

PSALM VIII, IX.

- 6 And on thy works hast given him, lordly authority.
7 All hast thou put under his feet;
all sheep and oxen, yea 8 and beasts of field. Fowles of the ayre, and fishes of the sea;
and all that passe through paths of seas.
9 O Iehovah our Lord, how wondrously-magnificent is thy name through the world?

Psalme 9

To the chiefe Musician upon Muth-Labben
a psalme of David

- LORD I'le the prayse, with all my heart;
thy wonders all proclaime.
2 I will be glad and joy in thee;
most high, I'le sing thy name.
3 In turning back my foes, they'le fall and perish at thy sight.
4 For thou maintaines my right, & cause:
In throne sits judging right.
5 Thou t' heathen checkst, & th'wicked stroyd;
their names raz'd ever aye.
6 Thy ruines, foe, for aye are done;
thou madst their townes decaye;
their memory with them is lost.
7 Yet ever sits the Lord:
his throne to judgement he prepares.
8 With right he'l judge the world:
he to the folke shall minister judgement in uprightnesse.

PSALME 1X

- 9 The Lord is for th'oprest a fort:
a fort in times of stresse.
- 10 Who knowes thy name, will trust in thee:
nor dost thou, Lord forsake, 11 them that thee seek. Psalmes, to the Lord that dwells in Sion, make:
declare among the folk his works.
- 12 For blood when he doth seeke, he them remembers: nor forgets the crying of the meeke.
- (2)
- 13 Iehovah, mercy on me have,
from them that doe me hate marke mine afflictions that arise, thou lift'st me from deaths-gate.
- 14 That I may tell in the gates of the Daughter of Sion, thy prayes all: and may rejoyce in thy salvation.
- 15 The heathen are sunk downe into the pit that they had made:
their owne foot taken is ith'net which privily they layd.
- 16 By judgement which he executes Iehovah is made knowne:
the wicked's snar'd in's owne hand work, deepe meditation.
- 17 The wicked shall be turn'd to hell,
all lands that God forget.
- 18 Forgot the needy shall ne're be:
poores hope ne're faild him yet.

PSALM IX, X:

19 Arise, o Lord, lest men prevaile, judge t<sup>e</sup> heathen in thy sight.

the nations Lord affright. Selah

Psalm 10

V Hy standst thou Lord a far? why hydst thy selfe in times of streight?

2 In pride the wicked persecutes the poore afflicted wight:
snare them in their contrived plots,

3 For of his hearts desire the wicked boasts, and covetous blesseth, stirring Gods ire.

4 The wicked one by reason of his countenances pride will not seek after God: not God so all his thoughts abide.

5 his wayes doe alwayes bring forth griefe, on high thy judgements bee
puffe at them all will hee.

6 Within his heart he thus hath sayd,
I moved shall not bee:
from aye to aye because I am not in adversitie

7 His mouth with cursing filled is,
deceits, and fallacy:
under his tongue perversnes is,

he slays the harmlesse: 'gainst the poore:
flyly his eyes downe bends.

9 He closely lurks as lion lurks in den, the poore to catch he lurks, & trapping them in 's net th' afflicted poore doth snatch.

10 Downe doth he crowtch, & to the dust humbly he bowes with-all:
that so a multitude of poore
in his strong pawes may fall.

11 He faith in heart, God hath forgot:
he hides his face away,
so that he will not see this thing unto eternall aye.

12 Ichovah rise thou up, o God lift thou thine hand on hy, let not the meek afflicted one be out of memory.

13 Wherefore doth the ungodly man contemne th' almighty one?
he in his heart faith, thou wilt not make inquisition.

14 Thou seest, for thou markst wrong, & spight, with thy hand to repay:
the poore leavs it to thee, thou art of fatherlesse the stay.

15 Break thou the arme of the wicked, and of the evil one.
search thou out his impiety, unill thou findest none.

PSALM X, XI:

16 Iehovah king for ever is,
and to eternall aye:
out of his land the heathen folke are perished away.

17 The meeke afflicted-mans desire Iehovah, thou dost heare:
thou firmly dost prepare their heart, thou makst attent thine eare.

18 To judge the fatherlesse & poore; that adde no more he may sorrowfull man out of the land with terror to dismay.

Psalme 11

To the chiefe Musician a psalme
of David.

In the Lord do trust; how then to my soule doe ye say, as doth a litle bird unto your mountaine flye away?

2 For loe, the wicked bend their bow, their arrows they prepare on string; to shoot in dark at them in heart that upright are.

3 If that the firme foundationes, utterly ruin'd bee:
as for the man that righteous is,
what then performe can hee?

4 The Lord in's holy temple is,
the Lords throne in heaven:
his eyes will view, and his eye lids will prove the Sonnes of men.

PSALME XI, XII.

- 5 The man that truly-righteous is ev'n him the Lord will prove;
his soule the wicked hates, & him that violence doth love.
- 6 Snares, fire, & brimstone he will raine,
ungodly men upon:
and burning tempest; of their cup
shall-be their portion.
- 7 For Iehovah that righteous is,
all righteousnesse doth love:
his countenane the upright one beholding, doth approve.

Psalm 12

To the chiefe Musician upon Sheminith
a psalme of David.

HElpe Lord: for godly men doe cease: faithfull faile men among.

- 2 Each to his freind speaks vanity;
with flattring lips, and tongue
and with a double heart they speake.
- 3 All flatt'ring lips the Lord shall cut them of, with every tongue that speaketh boasting word.
- 4 Thus have they sayd, we with our tongue, prevailing pow're shall get:
are not our lips our owne. for Lord who over us is set?
- 5 Thus saith the Lord, for sighs of them that want, for poor opprest, I'le now arise, from such as puffed, will set him safe at rest.

PSALM XII, XIII.

- 6 Pure are the words the Lord doth speak:
as silver that is tryde in earthen furnace, seven times that hath been purifyde.
- 7 Thou shalt them keep, o Lord, thou shalt preserve them ev'ry one, For evermore in safety from this generation.
- 8 The wicked men on evry side
doe walk presumptuously, when as the vilest sons of men exalted are on hye.

Psalme 13

To the chiefe Musician: a psalme
of David.

- O IEHOVAH, how long wilt thou forget me aye?
how long wilt thou thy countenance hide from me farre away?
- 2 How long shall I counsell, in my soule take sorrow in my heart dayly? o're me set how long shall be my foe?
- 3 Ichovah, o my God, behold me answer make,
Illuminate mine eyes, lest I the sleepe of death doe take.
- 4 Lest my foe say, I have.

for evil bountifully hath rewarded good to mee.

Psalme 14

To the chiefe Musician a psalme
of Dauid.

THe foole in's heart faith ther's no God: they are corrupt, have done abominable-practises,
that doth good there is none.

2 The Lord from heaven looked downe on Sonnes of men: to see, if any that doth understand, that seeketh God there bee.

3 All are gone back, together they ev'ns filthy are become:
and there is none that doeth good,
noe not so much as one.

4 The workers of iniquities, have they no knowledge all?
that eate my people: they eate bread,
and on God doe not call.

5 There with a very grievous feare affrighted fore they were,
for God in generation is of such as righteous are:

PSALM XIV, XV.

6 The counsell yee would make of him that poore afflicted is, to be asham'd & that because the Lord his refuge is.

7 Who Israels health from Syon gives?
his folks captivitie glad Israel shall be.

Psalm 15

A psalme of David.

IEHOVAH, who shall in thy tent

he doth not slander, neither doth unto his neighbour wrong,
And 'gainst his neighbour that doth not

4 Hee that an abject person is contemn'd is in his eyes;
But he will highly honour them that doe Iehovah feare:
and changeth not, though to his losse,
if that he once doe sweare.

Psalme 16

Michtam of David

O Mighty God, preserve thou mee; for on thee doe I rest.

2 Thou art my God, vnto the Lord
my soule thou hast profest:

My goodnes reacheth not to thee.

3 But to the Saints upon the earth & to the excellent, whome all my joye is on.

4 They who give gifts to a strange God, their sorrowes multiplie:
their drink oblations of blood offer up will not I.

Neither will I into my lips
the names of them take up.

5 Iehovah is the portion of my part, & my cup:

Thou art maintainer of my lot.

6 To me the lines fal'n bee in pleasant places: yea, faire is the heritage for mee.

7 I will Iehovah humbly-bleffe, who hath mee counsell'd:
yea in the nights my reines have mee, chastising nurtured.

8 Iehovah I have alwayes set as present before mee:
because he is at my right hand
I shall not moved bee.

9 Wherefore my heart rejoyced hath,

and glad is my glory:
moreover also my flesh shall
in hope lodge securely.
10 Because thou wilt not leave my soule within the grave to bee, nor wilt thou give thine holy one, corruption for to see.
11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life of joyes abundant-store before thy face, at thy right hand are pleasures evermore.

Psalme 17

A Prayer of David.

from lips that doe not lye.
2 From thy face let my judgement come:
thine eyes the right let see.
3 Thou prov'st mine heart, thou visitest by night, and tryest mee.
yet nothing find'st, I have resolv'd my mouth shall not offend.
4 From mens works: by word of thy lips
I spoylers paths attend.
5 Stay my feet in thy paths, lest my and waking with thine image, I shall satisfied bee.

PSALM XVIII

Psalm 18

To the chiefe Musician, a psalme of David, the servant of the Lord, who spake the words of this Song, in the day that the Lord deliuered him from the hands of all his enemies, & from the hand of Saule. and hee Sayde,

- I L'e dearely love thee, Lord, my strength:
The Lord is my rock, and my towre,
and my deliverer, my God,
I'le trust in him who is my powre,
My shield, & my salvationes-horne,
1 my high-fort; Who is prayse worthy,
I on the Lord will call, so shall
I bee kept from mine enemye.
4 Deaths sorrowes mee encompassed, mee fear'd the floods of ungodlie, 5 Hells pangs beset me round about,
the snares of death prevented mee.
6 I in my streights, cal'd on the Lord, and to my God cry'd: he did heare from his temple my voyce, my crye, before him came, unto his eare.
7 Then th' earth shooke, & quak't, & mountaines roots moov'd, & were stird at his ire, 8 Vp from his nostrils went a smoak, and from his mouth devouring-fire:
By it the coales inkindled were.
9 Likewise the heavens he downe-bow'd, and he descended, & there was under his feet a gloomy cloud.
10 And he on cherub rode, and flew;
yea he flew on the wings of winde.
11 His secret place hee darknes made

PSALME XVIII.

- his covert that him round confinde, Dark waters, & thick clouds of skies.
 12 From brightnes, that before him was,
 his thickned clouds did passe away, hayl-stones and coales of fire did passe; 13 Also Ichovah thundered, within the heavens, the most high likewise his angry-voyce did give,
 hayl-stones, and coales of fire did fly.
 14 Yea he did out his arrows send,
 and bruising he them scattered,
 and lightnings hee did multiply, likewise he them discomfited.
 15 The waters channels then were seene, and the foundationes of the world appear'd; at thy rebuke, at blast, of the breath of thy nostrils Lord.

- 16 Hee from above sent hee me rook:
 me out of waters-great he drew.
 17 Hee from mine enemies-strong, & from them which me hated did rescue:
 For they were mightyer then I.
 18 They mee prevented in the day of my cloudy calamity,
 but for me was the Lord a stay.
 19 And hee me to large place brought forth hee sav'd mee, for he did delight 20 in mee. The Lord rewarded me according as I did aright, According to the cleannesse of my

- my hands, he recompenced mee.
 21 For the wayes of the Lord I kept:
 nor from my God went wickedlies.
 22 For all his judgements mee before:
 nor from me put I his decree.
 23 With him I upright was, and kept my selfe from mine iniquitie.
 24 The Lord hath recompenced mee, after my righteousness therefore:
 according to the cleanness of my hands that was his eyes before.
 25 With mercifull, thou mercifull, with upright thou deales uprightly.
 26 With pure thou pure, thou also wilt with froward turne thy selfe awry.
 27 For thou wilt save th' afflicted folke:
 but wilt the lofty looks suppress.
 28 For thou wilt light my lampe: the Lord my God will lighten my darkness.
 29 For by the I rann through a troupe, and by my God leapt o're a wall.
 30 Gods way is perfect: Gods word tryde:
 that trust in him hee's shield to all.
 31 For who is God except the Lord?
 or who a rock, our God except?
 32 Its God that girdeth me with strength, and hee doth make my way perfect.
 33 Like to the hynles he makes my feet:
 and on my high place makes me stand.
 34 Mine armes doe break a bow of brasse;
 so well to waire he leagnes my hand.

PSALME XVIII.

- 35 The shield of thy salvation thou furthermore hast given mee:
and thy right-hand hath mee upheld, thy meeknes made mee great to bee.
- 36 Vnder mee thou makst large my steps.
so that mine anckles did not flyde
- 37 My foes pursu'de I, & them caught:
nor turn'd I till they were destroyd.
- 38 I wounded them & they could not rise up: under my feet they fell.
- 39 Because that thou hast girded mee with fortitude to the battel: Thou hast subdued under mee,
those that did up against me rise.
- 40 And my foes necks thou gavest mee, that I might wast mine enemyes.
- 41 They cryde but there was none to save,
to God, yet with no answer meet.
- 42 I beat them then as dust i'th winde and cast them out as dirt i'th street.

- 43 And thou from the contentions hast of the people mee set free;
thou of the heathen mad'st me head:
people I knew not shall serue mee.
- 44 They'le at first hearing me obey:
strangers shall yield themselvs to mee.
- 45 The strangers shall consume away,
and from their closets frighted bee.
- 46 The Lord lives, and blest be my Rock, let my healths God exalted bee.

PSALM XVIII, XIX

- 47 It's God for mee that vengeance works, and brings downe people under mee.
48 Mee from mine enemies he doth save:
and above those that 'gainst me went,
thou lift'st me up; and thou hast freed mee from the man that's violent.
49 I with confession will therefore unto thee render thanksgiving, o Lord, among the heathen-folk;
and to thy name I'le prayes sing:

Psalm 20

To the chiefe Musician, a psalme of David.

IEHOVAH heare thee in the day of sore calamity,
the name of the God of Jacob defend thee mightily.

- 2 Send thee help from his holy place:

- 4 Grant thee according to thy heart, all thy counsell fulfill.

- 5 In thy perfect salvation with singing joy we will:

And we in the name of our God our banners will erect:

when as all thy petitions Iehovah shall effect.

- 6 Now I know, that Iehovah doth save his annoynted-Deare:

with saving strength of his right hand from his pure heav'n will heare.

when as to him we cry.

Psalme 21

To the chiefe Musician a psalme
of David.

IEHOVAH, in thy strength the King shall joyfull bee; and joy in thy salvation how vehemently shall hee?

2 Thou of his heart to him hast granted the desire:
and thou hast not withholden back, what his lips did require. Selah.

3 For thou dost with blessings of goodnes prevent him:
thou on his head of finest gold hast set a Diadem.

4 Of thee hee asked life,
to him thou gav'st it free, even length of days for evermore unto eternitie.

his glory hath bene great honour, and comely dignity thou hast upon him set.

6 For thou him blessings setst to perpetuities;

PSALM XXr.

- Thou makst him with thy countenance:
exceeding glad to bee.
- 7 Because that in the Lord
the King doth trust, & hee through mercy of the highest one, shall not removed bee.
- 8 The Lord shall finde out all that are thine enemies: thy right hand also shall finde out those that doe thee despise.
- 9 Thou setst as fiery oven them in times of thine ire:
the Lord will swallow them in's wrath,
and them consume with fire.
- 10 Thou wilt destroy the fruit, that doth proceed of them, out of the earth: & their seed from among the Sonnes of men.
- 11 Because they evill have intended against thee:
a wicked plot they have devised,
but shall not able bee.
- 12 For thou wilt as a butt them set; & thou wilt place thine arrows ready on thy string,

Psalm 22

To the chiefe musician upon Aijelet Shahan
a psalme of David.

MY God, my God, wherefore hast thou forsaken mee? & why,
art thou so farre from helping mee,
from the words of my cry?

2 O my God, I doe cry by day, but mee thou dost not heare;
and eke by night, & unto mee
no quiet rest is there.

3 Neverthelesse thou holy art, who constantly dost dwell, within the thankfull prayes of thy people Israell.

4 Our fore-fathers in thee have put assured confidence:
they trusted have, & thou to them didst give deliverance.

5 Vnto thee they did cry aloud, and were delivered:
in thee they put their confidence,
and were not confounded.

6 But I a worme, & not a man;
of men an opprobrie,
and also of the people am despis'd contemptuously.

7 All they that doe upon mee look,
a scoffe at mee doe make:
they with the lip doe make a mow,
the head in scorne they shake.

PSALM XXII.

- 8 Vpon the Lord he rold himselfe;
let him now rid him quite:
let him deliver him, because in him he doth delight.
- 9 But thou art hee that me out of the belly forth didst take:
when I was on my mothers breasts, to hope thou didst mee make.
- 10 Vnto thee from the tender-womb committed been have I: yea thou hast been my mighty-God from my mothers belly.

- 11 Be thou not farre away from mee;
for tribulation
exceeding great is neere at hand, for helper there is none.
- 12 Mee many buls on every side about have compassed:
the mighty- buls of Bashan have mee round invironed.
- 13 They have with their wide-opened-mouths so gaped mee upon;
like as it were a ravening and a roaring Lion.
- 14 As water I am poured-out,
and all my bones fundred:
my heart in midst of my bowels, is like to wax melted.

PSALME XXV.

I Lift my soule to thee o Lord.
My God I trust in thee, let mee not be asham'd: nor let my foes joy over mee.

3 Yea, all that wait on thee shall not,
be fill'd with shamefulness:
but they shall be ashamed all,
who without cause transgresse.

4 Thy wayes, Iehovah, make mee know, thy paths make me discern.

5 Cause mee my steps to order well,
in thy truth, & mee learne,
For thou God of my saving health,
on thee I wait all day.

6 Thy bowels, Lord, & thy mercyes minde; for they are for aye.

7 Sinnes of my youth remember not,
neither my trespasses:
after thy mercy minde thou mee
o Lord for thy goodnes.

8 Good and upright God is, therefore will sinners teach the way.

9 The meek he'll guide in judgement; & will teach the meek his way.

and I have trusted in the Lord,
therefore flyde shall not I.

2 Examine mee, Lord, & mee prove;
my reins, & my heart try.

3 For thy grace is before mine eyes;
and in thy truth walk I.

4 I eat not with vaine men, nor goe with men themselves that hide.

5 Evill mens company I hate:
nor will with vile abide.

6 In cleannesse, Lord, I'le wash mine hands, so I'le thine altar sound:

7 That I may preach with thankfull-voyce, and all thy prayes sound.

8 The habitation of thy house, Lord, dearly love doe I,
the place and tabernacle of thy glorious majesty.

9 My soule with sinners gather not,
with men of blood my life.

PSALM XXViii:

The Lord is my lifes-strength, of whom should I then be afrayd?

2 When wicked men, mine enemies, and my foes in battel;
against mee come, to eate my flesh, themselves stumbled & fell.

3 If that an hoast against mee camp, my heart undaunted is:
if war against mee should arise,
I am secure in this.

4 One thing of God I asked have,
which I will still request:
that I may in the house of God,
all dayes of my life rest:
To see the beauty of the Lord,
and in his Temple seeke.

5 For in his tent in th'evill-day, hidden hee will mee keepe:
Hee will me hide in secrecy of his pavillion:
and will me highly lift upon the rocks-munition.

6 Moreover at this-time my head lifted on high shall bee, above mine enemies, who doe about encompasse mee.

Therefore in's tent I'le sacrifice, of joye an offering,
unto Iehovah, sing will I, yea, I will prayses sing.

PSALME XXVII.

when I lift up mine hands unto thine Oracle of Sanctity.

2 With ill men draw me not away, with workers of unrighteousnes, that with their neighbours peace doe speak,
but in their hands is wickednes.

Give thou to them like to their works and like the evill of their deeds:
give them like to their handy-works, and render unto them their meeds.

Because unto Iehovahs work they did not wise-attention yeild, neither unto his handy work, them he will wast, but not up-build.

6 The Lord be blest, for he hath heard the voyce of my requests for grace.

Thou hidst thy face, I troubled was.

8 I unto thee did cry,
O Lord: also my humble suit unto the Lord made I.

9 What gaine is in my blood; when I
into the pit goe downe?
shall dust give glory unto thee?
shall it thy truth make knowne?

10 Doe thou mee o Iehovah, heare, and on mee mercy have:
Iehovah, o bee thou to mee who doe him feare; and to them doth deliverance afford.

8 O tast, also consider yee, that God is good: o blest, that man is ever whose hope doth for safety in him rest.

9 O stand in feare of Iehovah, his holy ones who bee.
because that such as doe him feare not any want shall see.

- 10 The Lions young doe suffer lack,
and suffer hungering:
but they that seek Iehovah, shall not want any good thing.

- 11 I will you teach to feare the Lord:
come children hark to mee.
12 Who is the man that willett life:
and loves good dayes to see?
13 Thy tongue from evill, & thy lips from speaking guile keep thou.
14 Depart from evill & doe good:
seek peace, and it follow.
15 Vpon the men that righteous are the Lord doth set his eye:
and likewise he doth bow his care when unto him they cry.
16 Iehovahs face is set against them that doe wickedly:
that he of them from off the earth
may cut the memory.
17 They cry'd, God heard, & set them free, from their distresses all.
18 To broken hearts the Lord is neere, and contrite save he shall.
19 The just mans sorrows many are,
from all God sets him free.
20 Hee kepeth all his bones, that none of them shall broken bee.
21 Evill shall certainly bring death;
the wicked man upon:

and those that hate the just shall come to desolation.

22 The soules of them that doe him serve, Iehovah doth redeeme:
nor any shall be desolate, that put their trust in him.

35 A psalme of David.

PLead, Lord, with them that with me plead: fight against them that fight with mee.

2 Of shield & buckler take thou hold, stand up my helper for to bee.

3 Draw out the speare & stop the way
'gainst them that my pursuers bee:
and doe thou say unto my soule
I am salvation unto thee.

4 Let them confounded be, & sham'd, that seek my soule how they may spill:
let them be turned back & sham'd that in their thoughts devise mine ill.

5 As chaffe before the winde, let them be, & Gods Angell them driving.

6 Let their way dark & slippery bee, and the Lords Angell them chafing.

7 For in a pit without a cause, they hidden have for me a net:
which they without a cause have digg'd that they there in my soule may get.

Let unknowne ruin come on him, and let his net that he doth hide, himselſe inſnare: let him into the very ſame deſtruction ſlyde.

PSALM xxxv.

9 My soule shall in the Lord be glad:
in his salvation joyfull bee

10 And all my bones shall also say,
O Lord, who is like unto thee?

Who from the stronger then himselfe the poore afflicted settest free:
the poore afflicted & needy,
from such as spoylers of him bee.

11 False witnesses did up arise:
what I knew not they charg'd on mee.

12 Evill for good they mee repay'd, whereby my soule might spoyled bee,

13 But I, when they were sick, was cloath'd with sackcloath, & I afflicted my soule with fasting, & my pray'r into my bosom returned.

14 I walked as if he had been my neere freind or mine owne brother:
I heavily bow'd downe as one that mourneth for his owne mother.

15 But they in mine adversity rejoyced, & they gathered themselves together: yea abjects themselves against mee gathered;

And I was ignorant hereof;
and they unceasantly mee teare,

16 With hypocrites, mockers in feasts;
at me their teeth they gnashing were.

17 How long O Lord wilt thou look on?
my soule from their destructions,

O doe

o doe thou set at liberty, mine only one from the Lions.

18 I freely will give thanks to thee within the congregation great:
and I thy prayes will set forth where there be many people met.

19 Those that are wrongfully my foes, let them not rejoyce over mee:
neither let them wink with the eye,
that are my haters causlessly.

20 Because that they doe not speak peace:
but in their thoughts they doe invent deceitfull matters against them that in the land for peace are bent.

21 Gainst me they op'ned their mouths wide, & sayd, ah, ah our eye it saw.

22 Thou saw'st it (Lord) hold not thy peace:
Lord, from me be not far away.

23 Stirre up & wake to my judgement, my God & my Lord, to my plea.

24 After thy justice, judge me, Lord my God, lest or'e me joy should they.

25 Let them not say within their hearts, aha, our soules desire have wee:
we now have swallowed him up,
o let them never say of mee.

26 Sham'd let them be & confounded joyntly, who at my hurt are glad:
let them that 'gainst me magnify, with shame & dishonour be clad.

27 Let them for joy shout, & be glad and of thy prayse speake all the day.

Psalme 36.

To the chief Musician a psalme of David,
the servant of the Lord.

THe trespasse of the wicked one faith in assured-wise:
within my heart, the feare of God is not before his eyes.

2 For in his eyes he sooths himselfe:
his sin is found meane while

3 hatefull. The words of his mouth are iniquity & guile:

He to be wise, to doe good leaves.

4 He mischief plotts on's bed, he sets himselfe in way not good:
he hath not ill hated.

5 Thy mercy (Lord) in heaven is,
to clouds thy faithfullnes.

6 Thy judgements a great deep, like great mountains thy righteousness:

Thou savest man & beast, o Lord.

7 How pretious is thy grace, therefore in shadow of thy wings mens sonnes their trust doe place.

They

PSALME xxxvi, xxxvii.

- 8 They of the fatnes of thy house unto the full shall take:
and of the river of thy joyes to drink thou shalt them make.
9 For with thee is the spring of life:
in thy light wee'll see light.
10 To them that know thee stretch thy grace;
to right in heart thy right.
11 Let no proud foot against me come,
nor wicked hand move mee.
12 Wrong doers there are fal'n: cast downe, and rayf'd they cannot bee,

37 A Psalm of David.

FRet not thy selfe because of those that evill workers bee, nor envious bee against the men
that work iniquitie.

2 For like unto the grasse they shall be cut downe, suddenly:
and like unto the tender herb they withering shall dye.

3 Vpon the Lord put thou thy trust, and bee thou doing good,
so shalt thou dwell within the land, and sure thou shalt have food.

4 See that thou set thy hearts delight also upon the Lord, and the desyers of thy heart to thee he will afford.

5 Trust in the Lord: & hee'll it work, to him commit thy way.

PSALM xxxvii.

6 As light thy justice hee'l bring forth, thy judgement as noone day.

7 Rest in Iehovah, & for him with patience doe thou stay:
fret not thy selfe because of him who prospers in his way, Nor at the man, who brings to passe the crafts he doth devise.

8 Cease ire, & wrath leave: to doe ill thy selfe fret in no wise.

9 For evil doers shall be made by cutting downe to fall:
but those that wayt upon the Lord,
the land inherit shall.

10 For yet a litle while, & then the wicked shall not bee:
yea, thou shalt diligently mark his place, & it not see.

11 But meek ones the inheritance shall of the earth possesse:
also they shall themselves delight in multitude of peace.

12 The wicked plotts against the just,
gnashing at him his teeth.

13 The Lord shall laugh at him: because his day coming he seeth.

14 The wicked have drawne out their sword, & bent their bowe have they,
to cast the poor & needy downe,
to kill th'upright in way.

15 their

PSALME XXXVII.

- 15 Their sword shall enter their owne heart, their bowes shall broken bee.
16 The just mans little, better is then wickeds treasure.
17 For th'armes of wicked shall be broke:
the Lord the just doth stay.
18 The Lord doth know upright mens dayes:
and their lot is for aye.
19 Neither shall they ashamed bee in any time of ill:
and when the dayes of famine come,
they then shall have their fill.
20 But wicked, & foes of the Lord as lambs fat shall decay:
they shall consume: yea into smoake
they shall consume away.

(3)

- 21 The man ungodly borroweth,
but he doth not repay:
but he that righteous is doth shew mercy, & gives away.
22 For such as of him blessed bee, the earth inherit shall,
and they that of him cursed are,
by cutting downe shall fall.
23 The foot-steps of a godly man they are by Iehovah established: & also hee delighteth in his way.
24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be utterly downe cast:

because

PSALM xxxvii.

because Ichovah with his hand doth underprop him fast.

25 I have been young & now am old;
yet have I never seen the just man left, nor that his seed for bread have beggars been.

26 But every day hee's mercifull, and lends: his seed is blest.

27 Depart from evill, & doe good:
and ever dwell at rest.

28 Because the Lord doth judgement love, his Saints forfakes not hee;
kept ever are they: but cut off the sinners seed shall bee.

29 The just inherit shall the land, and therein ever dwell.

30 The just mans mouth wisdom doth speak, his tongue doth judgement tell.

31 The law of his God is in's heart:
none of his steps slideth.

32 The wicked watcheth for the just, neither will he condemne him when adjudged he doth stand.

A psalme of David,
to bring to remembrance.

and in me thy ſhafts faſtened bee.

PSALM xxxviii.

3 There is no soundnes in my flesh, because thine anger I am in:
nor is there any rest within my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 Because that mine iniquities ascended are above my head:
like as an heavy burden, they
to heavy upon me are layd.

5 My wounds stink, and corrupt they be:
my foolishnes doth make it so.

6 I troubled am, & much bow'd downe;
all the day long I mourning goe.

7 For with foule sores my loynes are fill'd:
& in my flesh is no soundnes.

8 I'me weak & broken fore; I roar'd because of my hearts restlesnes.

9 All my desire's before thee, Lord;
nor is my groaning hid from thee.

10 My heart doth pant, my strength me fails:
& mine eye sight is gone from mee.

11 My freinds & lovers from my fore stand off: off stand my kinsmen eke.

12 And they lay snares that seek my life, that seek my hurt, they mischief speak,

And all day long imagin guile, 13 But as one deafe, I did not heare, and as a dumb man I became as if his mouth not open were.

14 Thus was I as man that heares not,
& in whose mouth reprooves none were.

PSALME xxx viii.

o Lord my God, thou wilt mee heare.
16 For sayd I, lest or'e me they joy:
when my foot slips, they vaunt the more 17 themselves 'gainst me. For I to halt am neere, my grief's still mee before.
18 For my transgression I'le declare;
I for my sins will sorry bee.
19 But yet my lively foes are strong,
who falsly hate me, multiplie.
20 Moreover they that doe repay evill in stead of good to mee, because I follow what is good,
to mee they adversaries bee.
21 Ichovah, doe not mee forsake:
my God o doe not farre depart

o Lord who my salvation art.

Psalme 39

To the chief musician, even to Ieduthun,
a Psalme of David.

- I Sayd, I will look to my wayes, lest I sin with my tongue: I'le keep my mouth with bit, while I
the wicked am among.
2 With silence tyed was my tongue,
my mouth I did refraine,
From speaking that thing which is good,
and stirred was my paine.
3 Mine heart within me waxed hot,
while I was musing long,

I
in kindled

in kindled in me was the fire;
then spake I with my tongue.

4 Mine end, o Lord, & of my dayes let mee the measure learne;
 that what a momentany thing
 I am I may discerne.

5 Behold thou mad'st my dayes a span, mine age as nought to thee:
 surely each man at's best estate,
 is wholly vanity. Selah.

6 Sure in a vaine show walketh man;
 sure stir'd in vaine they are:
 he heaps up riches, & knows not who shall the same gather.

7 And now, o Lord what wayt I for?
 my hope is upon thee.

8 Free me from all my trespasses:
 the fooles scorne make not mee.

9 I was dumb nor opned my mouth, this done because thou hast.

10 Remove thy stroke away from mee:
 by thy hands blow I wast.

11 When with rebukes thou dost correct man for iniquity;

thou blast'st his beauty like a moth:
 sure each man's vanity. Selah.

12 Heare my pray'r, Lord, hark to my cry, be not still at my tears:

for stranger, & pilgrim with thee,
 I 'me, as all my fathers.

Psalme 40.

To the chief musician, a psalme-
of David.

VWith expectation for the Lord
I wayted patiently,
and hee inclined unto mee.
also he heard my cry.

- 2 He brought mee out of dreadfull-pir,
out of the miery clay:
and set my feet upon a rock,
hee stablished my way.

- 3 And in my mouth put a new song, of prayse our God unto:
many shall see, & feare, upon the Lord shall trust also.

- 4 Blest is the man that on the Lord maketh his trust abide:
nor doth the proud respect, nor such
to lies as turne aside.

- 5 O thou Iehovah, thou my God, hast many a wonder wrought:
and likewise towards us thou hast conceived many a thought.

Their summe cannot be reck'ned up in order unto thee:

would I declare & speak of them, beyond account they bee.

PSALM xl.

PSAL-

PSALM xlv.

WEE with our eares have heard, o God,
our fathers have us told,
what works thou diddest in their dayes,
in former dayes of old.

2 How thy hand drave the heathen out, and them thou planted hast;
how thou the people didst afflict, and thou didst them out-cast.

3 For they got not by their owne sword
the lands possession, neither yet was it their owne arme wrought their salvation:
But thy right hand, thine arme also,
thy countenances light;
because that of thine owne good will thou didst in them delight:

4 Thou art my king, o mighty God, thou dost the same indure:
doe thou for Iacob by command deliverances procure.

5 Through thee as with a horne wee will push downe our enemies:
through thy name will wee tread them downe that up against us rise.

6 Because that I will in no wise any affiance have,
upon my bow, neither is it my sword that shall mee save.

7 But from our enemies us thou sav'd, and put our foes to shame.

8 In God wee boast all the day long,

and

and for aye prayse thy name.

thou makest us also to be asham'd; neither dost thou forth with our armies goe.
- 10 Vs from before the enemy
thou makest back recoyle:
likewise they which our haters bee,
for themselves us doe spoyle.
- 11 Thou hast us given like to sheep to slaughter that belong:
also thou hast us scattered the heathen folk among.
- 12 Thou dost thy people set to sale whereby no wealth doth rise:
neither dost thou obtaine increase of riches by their price.
- 13 Vnto our neighbours a reproach thou doest us expose,
a scorne we are & mocking stock,
to them that us inclose.
- 14 Among the heathen people thou a by word dost us make:
also among the nations,
at us their heads they shake.

- 17 All this is come on us, wee yet have not forgotten thee:
neither against thy covenant have wee dealt faithleslie.
- 18 Our heart is not turn'd back, nor have our steps from thy way stray'd;
- 19 Though us thou brake in dragons place,
and hid us in deaths shade.
- 20 had wee forgot Gods name, or stretcht to a strange God our hands:
- 21 Shall not God search this out? for hee hearts secrets understands.
- 22 Yea, for thee all day wee are kil'd:
counted as sheep to slay.
- 23 Awake, why sleepest thou, Lord? arise, cast us not off for aye.
- 24 Thy countenance away from us o wherefore dost thou hide?
of our grief & oppression forgetfull dost abide.
- 25 For our soule is bowd downe to dust:
to earth cleaves our belly.
- 25 Rise for our help, & us redeeme,

To the chief musician a psalme for the sonnes of Korah.

HEare this all people, all give eare that dwell the world all o're.

2 Sonnes both of low, & higher men, joyntly both rich & poore.

3 My mouth it shall variety of wisdom be speaking:
and my hearts meditation shall be of understanding.

4 Vnto a speech proverbiall
I will mine eare incline;
I will also upon the Harp open my dark doctrine.

5 Why should I be at all afrayd in dayes that evill bee:
when that my heeles iniquity about shall compasse mee.

6 Those men that make their great estates their stay to trust unto,
who in the plenty of their wealth themselves doe boast also:

7 Ther 's not a man of them that can by any meanes redeeme his brother, nor give unto God enough to ransom him.

8 So deare their soules redemption is & ever ceaseth it.

PSALM xl ix.

- 9 That he should still for ever live and never see the pit.
- 10 For he doth see that wise man dye,
the foole and brutish too to perish, & their rich estate to others leave they doo.
- 11 They think their houses are for aye to generations all their dwelling places, & their lands by their owne names they call.
- 12 Neverthelesse, in honour man, abideth not a night:
become he is just like unto
the beasts that perish quite.
- 13 This their owne way their folly is;
yet whatsoe're they say,
their successors that follow them doe well approve. Selah.
- 14 Like sheep so are they layd in grave, death shall them feed upon;
& th' upright over them in morn shall have dominion.
And from the place where they doe dwell,
the beauty which they have,
shall utterly consume away in the devouring grave.
- (3)
- 15 But surely God redemption unto my soule will give,
even from the power of the grave, for he will me receive. Selah.

PSALME xlix, 1.

- 16 Be not afraid when as a man in wealth is made to grow, and when the glory of his house abundantly doth flow.
- 17 Because he shall carry away nothing when he doth dye:
neither shall after him descend ought of his dignity.
- 18 And albeit that he his soule
in time of his life blest, and men will prayse thee, when as thou much of thy selfe makest.
- 19 He shall goe to his fathers race, they never shall see light.

2 From mine iniquity doe thou and also from this sin of mine doe thou mee purify.

3 Because, of my transgressions, my selfe doe take notice, and sin that I committed have before mee ever is.

4 Gainst thee, thee only I have sin'd this ill done thee before:
when thou speakest just thou art, & cleare when thou dost judge therfore.

5 Behold, how in iniquity in sin did mee conceive.

6 Behold

PSALME L.

- 6 Behold, thou dost desire the truth within the inward part:
and thou shalt make mee wisdom know in secret of my heart.
- 7 With hysope doe me purify,
I shall be cleansed so:
doe thou mee wash, & then I shall be whiter then the snow.
- 8 Of joy & of gladnes doe thou make me to heare the voyce:
that so the bones which thou hast broke may cheerfully rejoyce.
- 9 From the beholding of my sin hide thou away thy face:
also all mine iniquities doe utterly deface.
- (2)
- 10 A cleane heart (Lord) in me create,
also a spirit right

away out of thy sight;
Nor from me take thy holy spirit.
- 12 Restore the joy to mee of thy salvation, & uphold me with thy spirit free.
- 13 Then will I teach thy wayes to those
that work iniquitie:
and by this meanes shall sinners bee converted unto thee.
- 14 O God, God of my health, set mee free from bloud guiltines,

PSALM Lr.

- and so my tongue shall joyfully
sing of thy righteousness.
- 15 O Lord-my-stay, let thou my lips by thee be opened,
and by my mouth thy prayſes shall be openly shewed.
- 16 For thou desir'st not sacrifice,
it would I freely bring:
neither dost thou contentment take in a whole burnt offering.
- 17 The sacrifices of the Lord
they are a broken sprite:
God, thou wilt not despise a heart that's broken, & contrite.
- 18 In thy good pleasure o doe thou doe good to Sion hill:
the walles of thy Ierusalem o doe thou build up still.
- 19 The sacrifice of justice shall please thee, with burnt offering, and whole burnt offering; then they shall calves to thine Altar bring.

Another of the same.

- O GOD, have mercy upon mee, according to thy kindenes deare:
and as thy mercyes many bee,

4 Gainst thee, thee only sin'd have I, & done this evill in thy sight:
that when thou speakst thee justify men may, and judging cleare thee quite.

5 Loe, in injustice I hape't I was:
in sin my mother conceav'd mee.

6 Loe, thou in th'inwards truth lov'd haz:
and made mee wise in secrecie.

7 Purge me with hyssope, & I cleare

8 I shall be whiter. Make me heare

Thou broken hast joy cheerly shall.

9 Hyde from my sins thy face away blot thou iniquities out all which are upon mee any way.

11 Nor from thy presence quite me cast, thy holy spright nor from me take.

12 Mee thy salvations joy restore, and stay me with thy spirit free.

13 I wil, transgressors teach thy lore, and sinners shall be turnd to thee.

14 Deliver mee from guilt of bloud, o God, God of my health-saving, which if thou shalt vouchsafe, aloud thy righteousness my tongue shall sing.

15 My lips doe thou, o Lord, uncloset, a heart that's broken & contrite.

18 In thy good will doe thou bestow on Sion goodnes bounteouslie: Ieruselems walles that lye so low doe thou vouchsafe to edifie.

19 Then shalt thou please to entertaine the sacrifices with content of righteousness, the offrings slaine,

Psalmes, 6.

To the chief musician upō Ionath Elem Rechotooke him in Gath.

LORD, pittie mee, because man would up swallow mee:
and fighting all the day throughout, oppresse mee sore doth hee.

2 Mine enemies they would me swallow up dayly;
for they be many that doe fight against mee, o most high.

3 I'le put my trust in thee,
what time I am afrayd.

4 In God I'le prayse his word, in God my confidence have stayd;
I will not be afrayd
what flesh can doe to mee.

5 All day they wrest my words: their thoughts for ill against me bee.

6 They joyne themselves together; themselves they closely hyde;
they mark my steps when for my soule wayting they doe abyde.

7 Shall they make an escape thou in thine anger downe depresse the folk, o God mighty.

- 8 My wandrings thou dost tell,
put thou my weeping teares into thy bottle; are they not within thy registers.
- 9 Then shall my foes turne back,
when I crye unto thee:
this I doe know assuredly,
because God is for mee.
- 10 In God I'll prayse his word:
the Lords word I will prayse.
- 11 In God I trust: I will not feare what man 'gainst mee can rayse.
- 12 Thy vowes on me o God;
I'll render prayse to thee.
- 13 Because that thou my soule from death delivering dost free; Deliver wilt not thou
my feet from downe falling?
so that I may walk before God

Pfalme 57

To the chief musician Altaschith, Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

O GOD, to me be mercifull, be mercifull to mee:
because my soule for shelter-sa'e betakes it selfe to thee.

4 My soule's 'mongst lions, & I lye with men on-fier-set:
mens sonnes whose teeth are spears, & shafts, whose tongues as swords are whet.

5 O God, doe thou exalt thy selfe, above the heavens high:
up over all the earth also lifted be thy glory.

6 They for my steps prepar'd a net, my soule is bow'd; a pit
they dig'd before me, but themselves

Psalme 58

To the chief musician, Altaschih, michtam of David.

DOe yee o congregation, indeed speak righteousness?
and o yee sons of earthly men, doe yee judge uprightnes?

2 Yea you in heart will working be injurious-wickednes;
and in the land you will weigh out your hands violentnes.

3 The wicked are estranged from the womb, they goe astray as soone as ever they are borne; uttering lyes are they.

4 Their poyson's like serpents poyson:
they like deafe Aspe, her eare that stops. Though Charmer wisely charme, his voice she will not heare.

5 Within their mouth doe thou their teeth break out, o God most strong, doe thou Iehovah, the great teeth break of the lions young.

To the chief muſician, a psalm to bring to remembrance.

- O GOD, to reſcue mee,
Lord, to mine help, make haſt.
2 Let them that after my ſoule ſeek

PSALM

PSALM lxxi.

- IEHOVAH, I for safety doe betake my selfe to thee:
O let me not at any time put to confusion bee.
- 2 Me rescue in thy righteousness,
let me deliverance have:
to me doe thou incline thine eare,
also doe thou me save.
- 3 Be thou my dwelling Rock, whereto
I alwayes may resort:
thou gav'st commandment me to save,
for thou my Rock & Fort.
- 4 Out of the hand of the wicked
my God, deliver mee,
out of the hand of the unjust,
leaven'd with crueltie.
- 5 For thou O God, Iehovah art mine expectation:
and thou art hee whom from my youth
my trust is set upon:
- 6 Thou hast upheld mee from the womb, thou art he that tookst mee out of my mothers belly; still my prayse shall be of thee.

- 7 To many I a wonder am
but thou my refuge strong.
- 8 Let my mouth fill'd be with thy prayse, & honour all day long.
- 9 Within the time of elder age
O cast me not away,

and

PSALME lxxi.

and doe not thou abandon me
when my strength doth decay.
10 Because they that be enemyes to me, against me spake, and they that for my soule lay-wayt, counsell together take.

11 Saying, God hath forgotten him:
doe yee him now pursue,
and apprehend him, for there is not one him to rescue.

12 Depart not farre from mee, o God, my God hast to helpe mee.

13 The aduersaryes of my soule, let them ashamed bee:

Let them consumed be, let them be also covered,

both with reproach & dishonour, that for my hurt wayted.

(3)

14 But I with patience will wayt on thee continuallie, and I will adde yet more & more to all the prayse of thee.

15 My mouth forth shall thy righteousnes, and thy salvation show
from day to day, for of the same no number doe I know.

16 In the strong might of God the Lord
goe on a long will I:

I'll mention make of thy justice, yea ev'n of thine only.

PSALM lxxi.

- 17 From my youth up o mighty God, thou hast instructed mee:
 and hitherto I have declar'd the wonders wrought by thee.
 18 And now unto mine elder age, and hoary head, o God, doe not forsake mee: till I have thy power showne abroad, Vnto this generation,
 and unto every one
that shall hereafter be to come, thy strong dominion.

(4)

- 19 Thy righteousness o God, it doth reach up on high also,
 great are the things which thou hast done;
 Lord who's like thee unto?
 20 Thou who hast caused mee to see afflictions great & sore, shalt mee revive, & me againe from depths of earth restore.
 21 Thou shalt my greatnes multiply & comfort me alwayes.
 22 Also with tuned Psaltery
 I will shew forth thy prayse, O thou my God, I will sing forth to thee mine Harp upon, thy verity & faithfullnes, o Israels Holy-one.
 23 My lips with shouting shall rejoyce when I shall sing to thee:

my soule also, which freely thou hast brought to liberty.

- 24 Likewise my tongue shall utter forth thy justice all day long:
for they confounded are, & brought to shame, that seek my wrong.

Psalm 72

A psalm for Solomon.

- O GOD, thy judgements give the King, & thy justice to the Kings Sonne.
2 He shall thy folk with justice judge,
& to thy poore see judgement done,
3 The mountaines shall abundantly unto the people bring forth peace:
the little hills shall bring the same,
by executing righteousness.
4 Poore of the people he shall judge, and children of the needy save;
& he in peeces shall break downe each one that them oppressed have.
5 They shall thee feare, while Sun & moon endure through generations all.
6 Like raine on mowne grasse he shall come:
as showres on earth distilling-fall.
7 The just shall flourish in his dayes, & store of peace till no moone bee.
8 And from the sea unto the sea, from floud to lands end reigne shall hee.

doe dwell, before him bow they must:

- 10 Vpon him presents shall bestow of Tarshish, & the Iles, the Kings, Shebahs, & Sebahs Kings also,
shall unto him give offerings.
- 11 Yea to him all the kings shall fall, & serve him every nation:
- 12 For needy crying save he shall,
the poore, & helper that hath none.
- 13 The poore & needy he shall spare;
and the soules of the needy save.
- 14 Their soules from fraud & violence by him shall free redemption have:
And pretious in his sight shall be the bloud of them. And he shall live, and unto him shall every one of purest gold of Shebah give:
Also each one their humble prayr in his behalfe shall make alwayes:
and every one his blessednes

And they that of the citty be

- 17 His name for ever shall indure as long as Sun continue shall:

PSALME lxxii.

So shall his name continued be,
and men in him themselves shall blesse, and all the nations of the world shall him the blessed one professe.

18 O let Iehovah blessed be,
the God, the God of Israell, hee worketh by himselfe alone such things whereat men may marvell.

19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever, let the whole earth be fill'd full with glory of the same, Amen, also Amen say wee.

Psalme 73

A psalme of Asaph.

TRuly to Israell God is good;
to men of a cleane heart.

2 But my feet almost slipt, my steps aside did well nigh start.

3 For I was envious at the fooles, in peace to see the ill,

4 For in their death no bands there are,
but firme their strength is still.

5 Like other meane men they are not in toylefome misery, nor are they stricken with like plagues as other mortals bee.

6 Therefore doth pride like to a chaine encompasse them about,
and like a garment; violence doth cover them throughout.

7 Within the fatnes which they have extended are their eyes:
greater prosperity they have then their hearts can devise.

8 Corrupt they are, & wickedly speak guile: proudly they talk.

9 Against the heav'ns they set their mouth;
their tongue through th'earth doth walk.

have hither turned in,
and waters out of a full cup wrung out to them have been.
- 11 And they have sayd, how can it be that God this thing should know, & is there in the highest one knowledge hereof also?
- 12 Loe, these are the ungodly ones who have tranquillity:
within the world they doe increase in rich ability.
- 13 Surely in vaine in purity cleansed my heart have I.
- 14 And hands in innocence have washt, for plagu'd am I dayly:
And every morning chastened.
- 15 If I think thus to say, thy childrens generation
loe then I should betray;
- 16 And when this poynt to understand casting I did devise,
the matter too laborious appeared in mine eyes.

of God I went, & then I prudently did understand the last end of these men.

and into desolations
thou dost them downward cast.

19 As in a moment, how are they brought to destruction?
how are they utterly consum'd with sad confusion?

20 Like to a dreame when as a man

so thou o God, when thou awakst their Image shalt despise.

21 My heart thus was leaven'd with grief, prickt were my reins by mee:

like a beast before thee.

thou hast upheld mee stedfastly

25 In heavn above but thee alone who is it that I have?

and there is nothing upon earth
besides thee that I crave.

Maschil of Asaph.

O GOD, why hast thou cast us off, why doth thy rage indure?
for ever smoaking out against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Thy congregation call to minde the rod of thine inheritance which thou redeemed hast,

This mount Sion wherein thou dwelst.

3 Lift up thy foot on hye, unto the desolations

thine enemy for evermore

11 Why dost thou thus withdraw thine hand, the right hand of thy strength out of thy bosom o doe thou draw it forth to the length.
12 Because the mighty God hath been from ancient time my King, in midst of the earth he is salvation working.
13 Thou diddest by thy mighty powre

the Dragons heads in peeces thou didst break the waters under.

thou into peeces brake:

19 O doe not to the multitude

the congregation of thy poore

20 Vnto thy cov'nant have respect:
because the dark places of th'earth with habitations

2 When I th'assembly shall receive also unto the wicked ones, lift not the horne on hye.

5 Lift yee not up your horne on high:
with stiffned neck speak not,

6 For neither from East, West, nor South, promotion can be got.

7 But God is judge: he sets up one, another downe doth tread.

8 For in the Lords hand is a cup, also the wine is red:

It's full of mixture, & thereout that they might rise up & the same

PSALM lxxviii.

- 10 Gods cov'nant they kept not: to walk
in his law they denyde: 11 His works, & wonders, they forgot, that he to them descryde.
12 Things that were mervielous he did within their fathers sight:
in Egipts land, within the field of Zoan, by his might.
13 He did devide the sea, also he caus'd them through to passe:
& he the waters made to stand that as an heap it was.
14 With cloud by day, with fire all night drink unto them he gave.

16 Ev'n from out of the stony rock streames he did bring also, & caused water to run downe like as the rivers do.

against him for to sin:
by their provoaking the most high the wildernes within.
18 And also they within their heart

by asking earnestly for meat for their foules appetite:

20 Loe, he the rock smote, thence gusht out can he give bread also?

21 The Lord heard, he was wroth for this,
so kindled was a fire
'gainst Iacob:&'gainst Israell
there came up wrathfull ire.

22 For they in God believed not:
nor in his health did hope:

23 Though from above he charg'd the clouds:
& doores of heav'n set ope:

brought South-winde by his powre.

27 He flesh on them like dust: wing'd foules like the seas sand did showre.

28 And in the middest of their camp he caused it to fall,

he did on them bestow:

PSALM lxxviii

- 30 Howbeit they were not estrang'd from their lustfull desire:

of Israell the choise men.
32 Still for all this they sin'd: nor did believe his wonders then.

(5)

- 33 Therefore he did in vanity
the dayes of their life spend, and hastily he brought their yeares vnto a fearfull end.
34 When he them flew, then after him they sought with their desire:
and they return'd, early also did after God enquire.
35 Likewise that God was their strong rock they cal'd to memoree:
and that the mighty God most high,
was their Redeemer free.
36 Yet with their mouth they flattred him:
and to him their tongues lyde.
37 For right their heart was not in them:
nor did in's cov'nant byde.
38 But full of mercy, he forgave their sin, & stroyd them not;
yea, oft he turn'd his wrath aside, nor rayl'd all's anger hot.
39 For he, that they were but fraile flesh,

40 How oft in desert vext they him:
and made him there to moane?

41 Yea, they turn'd, tempted God: & did stint Isr'ells holy one.

42 His hand they did not, nor the day keep in their remembrance:
wherein he from the enemy
gave them deliverance:

43 And how his signes miraculous in Egypt he had showne:
and his most fearfull prodigies within the field of Zoan:

44 Also how he their rivers had converted into bloud:
& (that they could not drink therof)
the waters of their floud.

45 Amongst them, which did them devoure;
he sent forth divers flies:
& them amongst, which them destroyd, he sent forth frogs likewise.

46 He gave their fruit to th'Caterpillar: their labour to th'Locust.

47 He did their Vines destroy with hails: their Sycamores with frost.

48 Also unto the haile he did their cattell shut up fast:
likewise their herds of cattell to the fiery thunder blast,

PSALM lxxviii.

49 He cast on them fierce ire, & wrath, & indignation, & sore distresse: by sending forth ill Angells them upon.

(7)

50 He made a way unto his wrath, and their soule did not save from death: also their life over to Pestilence he gave,

51 He within Egypt land also all the first borne did smite:
those that within the tents of Ham were chieft of their might:

52 But he made like a flock of sheep his owne folk forth to go:
like to a flock ith wildernes he guided them also.

53 And he in safety did them lead so that they did not dread:
within the sea their enemies
he also covered.

54 And to the border he did bring them of his holy place:
unto this mountaine which he did
by his right hand purchase.

55 Fore them he cast the heathen out, their lot he did deuide by line: & Isr'ells tribes he made in their tents to abide.

(8)

56 Yet they tempted the most high God,

and

PSALME LXXVIII.

& griev'd him bitterly:
also his testimonyes they kept not attentively:

57 But like their fathers back they turn'd and faithlesnesse did show:
they turned were aside ev'n like to a deceitfull bowe.

58 For they to anger did provoake him with their places hye: & with their graven Images, mov'd him to jealousy.

59 God hearing this, was wroth, & loath'd Isr'ell with hatred great:

60 So Shiloh's tent he left: the tent which men amongst he set,

61 And he delivered his strength into captivity:

also into the enemies hand
his beautifull glory.

62 To th' sword he gave his folk: & was wroth with his heritage.

63 Fire their young men devour'd: their maides none gave to marriage.

64 Their Priests fell by the sword: also their widdows did not weepe.

65 Then did the Lord arise as one awakned out of sleepe:

Like a strong man that after wine

66 doth shout. He also smote his foes behinde: & so he gave them an eternall blot.

PSALM lxxviii, lxxix.

(9)

- 67 Then he did Iosephs tent refuse:
nor Ephr'ims tribe approv'd.
68 But he the tribe of Iudah chose: mount Sion which he lov'd.
69 And he his Sanctuary built like unto places high:
like to the earth which he did found
to perpetuity.
70 Of David also his servant election he did make;
and from the place of folding up
the sheep he did him take.
71 From following the ewes with young he did him then advance;
to feed Iacob his folk, also Isr'ell his heritance.
72 So he according to his hearts integrity them fed:
and by the wise discretion of his hands he them led.

Psalme 79

A psalme of Asaph.

O GOD, the heathen entred have thine heritance, & defylde thine holy temple: they on heaps Ierusalem have pyld.

To the chief musician upon Shoshannim

O Isr'ells shepheard, give thou eare;

like as a flock: that dwelst betweene the Cherubims, shine out.

2 Before Ephr'im & Benjamin, Manasseh's tribe also,
doe thou stir up thy strength, & come,
and to us safety show.

3 O God returne thou us againe, deep root thou didst cause it to take and it did fill the land.

10 Her shade hid hills, & her boughs did like Cedars great extend.
11 Her boughs to th'sea, & her branches she to the floud did send.

2 Take up a psalme of melodie, and bring the Timbrel hither:
the Harp which soundes so pleasantly with Psaltery together.

3 As in the time of the new moone with Trumpet sound on high:
in the appoynted time & day of our solemnity.

4 Because that unto Israell this thing a statute was;
and by the God of Iacob this did for a judgement pass.

5 This witnesse he in Ioseph set when as through Egypt land he went: I there a language heard
I did not understand.

6 I from the burden which he bare his shoulder did set free:
his hands also were from the pots delivered by mee.

11 My people yet would not give eare

12 So in the hardnes of their heart
I did them send away,
in their owne consultations

2 The Lord blesse in humility, o thou my soule: also put not out of thy memory all's bounties, thee unto.

3 For hee it is who pardoneth all thine iniquities:
he it is also who healeth
all thine infirmities.

4 Who thy life from destruction redeems: who crowneth thee with his tender compassion & kinde benigneitee.

5 Who with good things abundantlee doth satisfie thy mouth:
so that like as the Eagles bee

6 The Lord doth judgement & justice for all oppressed ones.

7 To Moses shew'd those wayes of his:
his acts to Isr'ells sonnes.

and unto anger hee is slow,
in mercy plenteous.

9 Contention he will not maintaine
to perpetuity:

nor he his anger will retaine

10 According to our sins likewise to us hee hath not done:
nor hath he our iniquities rewarded us upon.

11 Because even as the heavens are in height the earth above:
so toward them that doe him feare confirmed is his love.

12 Like as the East & West they are farre in their distances:
he hath remov'd away so far from us our trespasses.

13 A fathers pittie like unto,
which he his sonnes doth beare:
like pittie doth Iehovah shew to them that doe him feare.

14 For he doth know this frame of ours:
he minds that dust wee bee.

15 Mans dayes are like the grasse: like flower

16 For over it the winde doth passe, & it away doth goe;
also the place wheras it was

- 13 Through God wee shall do valiantly;
for hee'll our foes tread downe.

Psalme 109.

To the chief musician, a psalme
of David.

GOD of my prayse, hold not thy peace,
For mouth of the wicked, & mouth of the deceitfull are against mee opened:

Gainst mee they speake with lying tongue.

3 And compasse mee about with words of hate; & mee against without a cause they fought.

4 They for my love mine enemies are:

but

PSALME CIX.

- but I my prayer make.
5 And ill for good rewarded mee, & hate for my loves sake.
6 A wicked person over him doe thou make for to sit,
also at his right hand doe thou let Satan stand at it.
7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein:
and let the prayr that hee doth make.
be turned into sin.
8 Few let his dayes bee: & let his office another take.
9 His children let be fatherlesse, and's wife a widow make.
10 Let's children still be vagabonds, begge they their bread also:
out of their places desolate let them a seeking go.

(2)

- 11 Yea, let th'extortioner catch all that doth to him pertaine:
and let the stranger spoyle what he did by his labour gaine.
12 Let there not any bee that may mercy to him expresse:
nor any one that favour may his children fatherlesse.
13 The issue also let thou be cut off that from him came:
it's following generation

out blotted be his name.

14 Remembred with the Lord be his fathers iniquitee:

and of his mother never let the sin out blotted bee.

15 Before Iehovah let them bee continually put:

that from out of the earth he may
the mem'ry of them cut.

16 Because that he remembred not compassion to impart,
but did pursue the needy poore:
to slay the broke in heart.

(3)

17 As he did cursing love, so let cursing unto him come:
as he did not in blessing joy,
so be it far him from.

18 With cursing like a robe as hee cloath'd him: so let it go like water to his bowels, and like oyle his bones into.

19 Garment like let it to him be,
himselſe for to aray:
and for a girdle, wherewith hee

20 Thus let mine aduersaryes bee rewarded from the Lord:
also of them against my soule that speak an evil word.

- 21 But God the Lord, for thy Names sake,
o doe thou well for mee:
because thy mercy it is good,
o doe thou set mee free.
- 22 For poore & needy I: in mee

- 25 And I am their reproach: they look at mee, their heads they shake.
- 26 Help mee, o Lord my God: after thy mercy save thou mee:
- 27 That they may know this is thy hand:
Lord that it's done by thee.
- 28 Let them curse, but o doe thou blesse;
when as that they arise let them be shamed, thy servant
let him rejoyce likewise.
- 29 Mine aduersaries o let them with shame be cloath'd upon: & themselves cloath as with a cloak with their confusion.
- 30 I'll to Iehovah with my mouth give thanks exceedingly:
yea him among the multitude with prayse I'll glorify.

before the gods I'le sing to thee.
- 2 Toward thine holy Temple bow, & praise thy Name for thy mercee, & thy truth: for thy word thou hye or'e all thy Name dost magnify.

PSALME CXXXVIII.

- 1 In that day I cryde, thou answeredst mee:
with strength thou didst my soule up-bear.
2 Lord, all the earths kings shall praise thee,
the word when of thy mouth they heare.
3 Yea, they shall sing in the Lords wayes, for great's Iehovahs glorious prayse.
4 Albeit that the Lord be hye, respect yet hath he to the low:
but as for them that are lofty,
he them doth at a distance know.
5 Though in the midst I walking bee of trouble thou wilt quicken mee, Forth shalt thou make thine hand to go against their wrath that doe me hate; thy right hand shall me save also.
6 The Lord will perfect mine estate:
thy mercy Lord, for ever stands:
leave not the works of thine owne hands.

Another of the same.

- V I shall my heart, I'll thee confess:
thee praise the gods before.
2 The Temple of thine holines towards it I'll adore:
Also I will confesse thy Name, for thy truth, & mercy:
because thou over all thy Name thy word dost magnify.
3 In that same day that I did cry, thou didst mee answer make:
thou strengthenedst mee with strength, which I within my soule did take.

PSALM CXXXVIII, CXXXIX.

- 4 O Lord, when thy mouth's words they heare all earth's Kings shall thee praise.
5 And for the Lords great glory, there they shall sing in his wayes.
6 Albeit that the Lord be high, yet hee respects the low:
but as for them that are lofty hee them far off doth know.
7 Though I in midst of trouble go, thee quickning mee I haue:
thy hand thou wilt cast on my foe,
thy right hand shall mee save.
8 The Lord will perfect it for mee:
thy mercy ever stands,
Lord, doe not those forsake that bee
the works of thine owne hands.

Psalme 139.

To the chief musician, a psalme
of David.

- O LORD, thou hast me searcht & knowne.
Thou knowst my sitting downe, & mine up-rising: my thought is to thee as farre off knowne.
2 Thou knowst my paths, & lying downe,
& all my wayes knowst well.
3 For loe, each word that's in my tongue,
Lord, thou canst fully tell.
4 Behinde thou gird'st mee, & before; & layst on mee thine hand.
5 Such knowledge is too strange, too high, for mee to understand

7 where

PSALME CXXXIX,

- 7 Where shall I from thy presence go?
Or where from thy face flye?
- 8 If heav'n I climbe, thou there, loe thou,
if downe in hell I lye.
- 9 If I take mornings wings; & dwell where utmost sea-coasts bee.
- 10 Ev'n there thy hand shall mee conduct: & thy right hand hold mee.
- 11 That verily the darknes shall mee cover, if I say:
then shall the night about mee be like to the lightsome day.
- 12 Yea, darknes hideth not from thee,
but as the day shines night:
alike unto thee both these are,
the darknes & the light.
- 13 Because that thou possessed hast my reines: and covered mee within my mothers wombe thou hast.
- 14 My prayse shall be of thee,
Because that I am fashioned in fearfull wondrous wise: & that thy works are merveilous, my soule right well descries.
- (2)
- 15 From thee my substance was not hid,
when made I was closely:
& when within th'earths lowest parts
I was wrought curiously.
- 16 Thine eyes upon my substance yet imperfected, did look,

PSALM CXXXIX

& all the members that I have were written in thy booke, What dayes they should be fashioned:
 none of them yet were come.
 17 How precious are thy thoughts to mee,
 O God? how great's their summe?
 18 If I should count them, in number more then the sands they bee: & at what time I doe awake, still I abide with thee.
 19 Assuredly thou wilt O God, those that be wicked slay:
 yee that are bloody men, therefore depart from mee away.
 20 Because that they against thee doe speake wickedly likewise:
 thy Name they doe take up in vaine,
 who are thine enemies.
 21 Thy haters Lord, doe I not hate?
 & am not I with those offended grievously that doe up-rising thee oppose?
 22 Them I with perfect hatred hate:
 I count them as my foes.
 23 Search mee O God, & know my heart:
 try mee, my thoughts disclose: 24 And see if any wicked way in mee there bee at all: & mee conduct within the way that last for ever shall.

Palme 140

PSALME Cxi.

To the chief musician, a psalme
of David;

LORD, free mee from the evill man:
from violent man save mee.

2 Whose hearts thinke mischief: every day for war they gathered bee.

3 Their tongues they have made to be sharp a serpent like unto:
the poyson of the Aspe it is under their lipps also. Selah.

4 Keepe mee, Lord, from the wickeds hands, from violent man mee save:
my goings who to overthrow in thought projected have.

5 The proud have hid a snare for mee, cords also: they a net
have spred abroad by the way side:
grins for mee they have set. Selah.

6 Vnto Iehovah I did say, thou art a God to mee:
Lord, heare the voice of my requests, which are for grace to thee.

7 O God, the Lord, who art the stay of my salvation:
my head by thee hath covered been
the day of battell on.

8 Those mens desires that wicked are,
Iehovah, doe not grant, their wicked purpose further not,
lest they themselves doe vaunt.

PSALM Cxl, Cxlr.

- 9 As for the head of them that mee doe round about inclose, O let the molestation
of their lips cover those.
10 Let burning coales upon them fall, into the fire likewise let them be cast, into deepe pits, that they no more may rise.
11 Let not i'ch earth establisht bee men of an evill tongue:
evill shall hunt to overthrow the man of violent wrong.
12 The afflicteds cause, the poore mans right,
I know God will maintaine:
13 Yea, just shall praise thy Name: th'upright shall 'fore thy face remaine.

Psalm 141.

A psalme of David.

O GOD, my Lord, on thee I call,
doe thou make hast to mee:
and harken thou unto my voice,
when I cry unto thee.

- 2 And let my pray'r directed be as incense in thy sight:
and the up-lifting of my hands
as sacrifice at night.
3 Iehovah, oh that thou would'st set a watch my mouth before:
as also of my lips with care
O doe thou keepe the dore.
4 Bow not my heart to evill things;

PSALME Cxli,

to doe the wicked deed with wicked workers: & let not mee of their dainties feed.

5 Let just-men smite mee, kindenes 'tis;
let him reprove mee eke,
it shall be such a pretious oyle,
my head it shall not breake:

For yet my prayr's ev'n in their woes.

6 When their judges are cast on rocks, then shall they heare my words, for they are sweet to taste.

7 Like unto one who on the earth doth cutt & cleave the wood, ev'n so our bones at the graves mouth are scattered abroad.

8 But unto thee o God, the Lord directed are mine eyes:
my soule o leave not destitute,
on thee my hope relies.

9 O doe thou keepe mee from the snare which they have layd for mee; & also from the grins of those that work iniquitee.

10 Together into their owne nets
o let the wicked fall:
untill such time that I escape may make from them withall.

Psalme 142.

Maschil of David, a prayer when he was in the cave.

PSALM CXLIII

VNto Iehovah with my voice,

I did unto him cry:

unto Iehovah with my voice

my sute for grace made I.

2 I did poure out before his face

my meditation:

before his face I did declare the trouble mee upon.

3 O'rewhelm'd in mee when was my spirit,

then thou didst know my way:

I'th way. I walkt, a snare for mee they privily did lay.

4 On my right hand I lookt, & saw,

but no man would mee know,

all refuge faild mee: for my soule

none any care did show.

5 Then to thee Lord, I cryde, & sayd, my hope thou art alone:

& in the land of living ones thou art my portion.

6 Because I am brought very low, attend unto my cry:

from my pursuers save thou mee, which stronger bee then I.

7 That I thy Name may praise, my soule

from prison oh bring out:

when thou shalt mee reward, the just shall compasse mee about.

Psalmc 143.

A psalme of David.

PSALME CXLII.

LORD, heare my prayr, give eare when I doe supplicate to thee:

in thy truth, in thy righteousnes;
make answer unto mee.

2 And into judgement enter not with him that serveth thee;
for in thy sight no man that lives can justified bee.

3 For th'enemie hath pursude my soule, my life to th'ground hath throwne: & made mee dwell i th' dark like them that dead are long ago.

4 Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed perplexedly in mee:
my heart also within mee is made desolate to bee.

5 I call to minde the dayes of old,
I meditation use
on all thy words: upon the work of thy hands I doe muse.

6 I even I doe unto thee reach mine out-stretched hands:
so after thee my soule doth thirst as doe the thrifty lands. Selah.

7 Hast, Lord, heare mee, my spirit doth faile, hide not thy face mee fro:
lest I become like one of them that downe to pit doe go.

8 Let mee thy mercy heare i th' morne, for I doe on thee stay,

PSALM Cxliij. Cxliij.

wherin that I should walk cause mee
to understand the way:

For unto thee I lift my soule.

9 O Lord deliver mee from all mine enemies; I doe flye to hide my selfe with thee.

10 Because thou art my God, thy will oh teach thou mee to doe, thy spirit is good: of uprightnes lead mee the land into.

11 Iehovah, mee o quicken thou ev'n for thine owne Names sake;
And for thy righteousness my soule from out of trouble take.

12 Doe thou also mine enemies cut off in thy mercy, destroy them that afflict my soule:
for thy servant am I.

Psalme 144.

A psalme of David.

O Let Iehovah blessed be
who is my rock of might,
who doth instruct my hands to war,
and my fingers to fight.

2 My goodnes, fortresse, my hye towre, & that doth set mee free:
my shield, my trust, which doth subdue my people under mee.

3 Iehovah, what is man, that thou knowledge of him dost take?
it is the son of man, that thou account of him dost make?

4 Man's like to vanity: his dayes passe like a shade away.

5 Lord, bow the heav'ns, come downe & touch the mounts & smoake shall they.

6 Lightning cast forth, & scatter them:
thine arrows shoot, them rout,

7 Thine hand o send thou from above, doe thou redeeme mee out:

And rid mee from the waters great:
from hand of strangers brood:

8 Whose mouth speaks lyes, their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

9 O God, new songs I'le sing to thee:
upon the Psaltery,
and on ten stringed instrument to thee sing praise will I.

10 It's hee that giveth unto Kings safety victorious:
his servant David he doth save from sword pernicious.

11 Rid mee from hand of strange children, whose mouth speakes vanity: & their right hand a right hand is of lying falsity:

12 That like as plants which are growne up in youth may be our sons;
our daughters pallace like may be polisht as corner stones:

of every sort of meates;
our cattell bringing thousands forth,
ten thousands in our streets:

14 Strong let our oxen bee to work, that breaking in none bee nor going out: that so our streets may from complaints bee free.

whose state is such as this:
o blessed shall the people be,
whose God lehovah is.

Psalm 145.

Dauids psalme of praise.

MY God, o King, I'le thee extoll: & blesse thy Name for aye.

2 For ever will I praise thy Name;
and blesse thee every day.

3 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise:
his greatnes search can none.

4 Age unto age shall praise thy works:
& thy great acts make knowne.

5 I of thy glorious honour will speake of thy majesty; & of the operations
by thee done wondrously.

6 Also men of thy mighty works shall speake which dreadfull are:
also concerning thy greatnes,
it I will forth declare:

7 Thy great goodnes memory they largely shall expresse:

and they shall with a shouting voice
sing of thy righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious, & hee is full of compassion:
slow unto anger, & full of commiseration.

9 The Lord is good to all: or'e all pars (2) his works his mercies bee.

10 All thy works shall praise thee, o Lord:
& thy Saints shall blesse thee,

11 They'le of thy kingdomes glory speake:
and talk of thy powre bye;

12 To make mens sons his great acts know:
his kingdomes majesty.

13 Thy Kingdome is a kingdome aye:
& thy reigne lasts alwayes.

14 The Lord doth hold up all that fall:
and all downe-bow'd ones rayse.

15 All eyes wayt on thee, & their meat thou dost in season bring.

16 Opnest thy hand, & the desire fill't of each living thing.

17 In all his wayes the Lord is just:
& holy in's works all.

18 Hee's neere to all that call on him:
in truth that on him call.

19 Hee satisfy will the desire of those that doe him feare:

Hee will be safety unto them,
and when they cry he'le heare.
